

Mills Oakley promotes 48 lawyers

21 June, 2022

Mills Oakley is delighted to announce the promotion of seven new partners and 41 lawyers, effective 1 July 2022.

Mills Oakley Chief Executive Officer, John Nerurker, said: "This latest round of promotions sees Mills Oakley grow to become a 130-strong partnership, cementing our place as a leading law firm in Australia."

The firm's new partners are:

- Damian Harriss (Family Law, Melbourne)
- Edwina Reynolds (Property, Brisbane)
- Maurice Lynch (Insurance, Sydney)
- Natalie Butler (Government & Admin Law, Canberra)
- Nicola Murphy (Toxic Torts, Sydney)
- Rebecca Roberts (Toxic Torts, Perth)
- Lisa Thomas (National Practice Manager)

"It is also wonderful to see such a strong pipeline of talent coming up through Mills Oakley. I congratulate all of our newly promoted partners and lawyers on this well-deserved recognition of their contribution to our clients and our firm", Mr Nerurker added.
